ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

5

PROCESS FOR MAKING NON-CARCINOGENIC, HIGH AROMATIC PROCESS OIL

An atmospheric distillate stream is combined with a calculated amount of lubricant extract stream. This well-mixed stream is then hydrotreated to yield a non-carcinogenic, high aromatic process oil. A desired level of high aromatic lubricant product streams and having the desired solvency properties is achieved by varying the feed stream ratio and hydrotreating conditions.